

As a participant in the Southeastern Regional Relocation Council, you will have the opportunity to:

- Attend semi-annual meetings, one in the spring, and one in the fall. During these meetings, local and national experts share their knowledge on the latest issues and developments pertinent to the relocation industry.
- Promote professional and personal relationships with corporate and service industry relocation professionals in your region.
- Enroll in educational seminars.
- Obtain continuing education credits for the Certification Relocation Professional (CRP®) Designation as authorized by Worldwide ERC.

WHAT CAN I EXPECT AT SRRC?

Embrace the opportunity to learn new things from colleagues and partners through our various sessions.

Let's admit, we could all use a little more time to unwind and meet new people.

Our conferences offer many opportunities to discover how your programs and initiatives stack up across your own industry and others.

In addition to benchmarking, our conferences offer you the chance to discover best practices of your peers so that you can capitalize on their advances and avoid the mistakes they have already made.

Our corporate roundtable is open to corporate individuals only, this popular session provides an opportunity to share ideas, voice challenges, and find solutions with other likeminded professionals.

The ability to earn up to (6) CRP credits.
